Gigantic Plot of the "Grand Army of the Republic."

Not long since a new organization, called "The Grand Army of the Republic," was formed in every city and State in the Union. It is composed exclusively of veterans who served in the country as the fall of a snow-flake. It was not designed that it should take a prominent place before the public till some great necessity for its services should arise. In addition to the main purpose of supporting the Government, its object was of a benevolent nature, and by this means it presented special attractions to the soldiers, till, in a short time, its ranks embraced over 500,000 men.

On Thursday, for the first time, the State of New York was divided into military districts by the Adjutant-General of the organization, as will appear from the following "general orders" published in the N. Y. Tribune, of the following day:

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT, NEW YORK,
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
A. G's Office, New York, Feb. 6, 1867.

General Orders, No. 5.

1. The following named comrades are hereby detailed and announced as members of the provisional staff of this Department, on duty at these Headquarters: Major George T. Stevens, Aid-de-Camp and Assistant Inspector-General. Brevet Lieutenant Francis W. Parsons, Aid-de-Camp. They will be respected accordingly and are hereby authorized to establish and organize posts in localities not under the jurisdiction of District Commanders, announced in orders from these Headquarters.

2. The following named comrades are hereby detailed and announced as temporary commanders of their respective districts, which are designated as follows: District of Manhattan, comprising the city and county of New York, with headquarters at the Bible House, Brevet Brigadier General Rush C. Hawkins; District of Oneida, comprising the county of the same name, with headquarters at Utica, Major David F. Ritchie. They will at once assume command, and will be obeyed and respected accordingly.

3. To prevent the informality in the mustering in of recruits in this Department, it is hereby announced, for the information of this command, that recruits will be mustered only in regularly constituted posts, and by District Commanders in the establishment of posts, except by the Grand Commander, an officer of his staff, or by special authority from these headquarters. The attention of officers is particularly called to articles 5, 9, 11 and 15, of the rules and regulations of the Grand Army of the Republic, and the strict enforcement of its provisions especially enjoined. Staff officers will be enrolled as members of posts, and reported by the posts to which they belong as upon detached service.

By order of the Grand Commander.
Official: FRANK J. BRAMHALL,
Assistant Adjutant General.
D. VAN SCHICK, Aid-de-Camp.

INTERVIEW WITH ONE OF THE COMMANDERS.

In order to ascertain from an official source, the avowed objects and character of the organization, one of the reporters called last evening at the office of the commander of the forces of the District of Manhattan, in the Bible House, and finding the apartment closed, proceeded to his house in Fifth avenue, when the following dialogue, which the leader will find bears out the assertions which form the preface of this article:

Reporter, (handing the Colonel a copy of the above "general orders,") There is a report to the effect that the grand army of the republic, to which reference is made in these orders, has been raised for Radical purposes, and that it is designed to be used against the President and his adherents, should any trouble result from his proposed impeachment.

Commander—If Congress should impeach the President, I have no doubt as to which side the grand army of the republic will take.

Reporter—Will you please tell me what are its objects, and when it was formed?

Commander—It had its origin some time since in portions of the West, where there is no militia. Its objects are of a benevolent character; its aims to assist all its members who may be in need.

Reporter—How many men are there enrolled in the organization?

Commander—Over five hundred thousand.—All soldiers honorably discharged are admissible. We have Democrats and Republicans in our ranks; but all the leading officers are Radicals, so you can imagine how the army would be wielded in case of any national necessity.

Reporter—Then the army may be said to have a Radical character in the main?

Commander—Yes: it is under the radical officers, and if there should be any necessity for its services, I have no doubt they would be rendered for the purpose of supporting Congress, if it impeached the President.

Reporter—Have arms or uniforms been furnished to the men?

Commander—No.

Reporter—Do they meet regularly?

Commander—Yes, but their meetings are secret, they meet in lodges, and only members are admitted; we are particular about our members; all who apply for admission are obliged to furnish papers showing their connection with the army and a honorable discharge.

Such was the interview our reporter had with one of the military leaders of the organization, whose replies show that this new army may be used at any time at the beck of Congress, to sustain its policy by force, and to silence all opposition to the impeachment of the President. When the fact is realized that it is unnecessary to create "military departments" for a "benevolent" organization, the object of the army, in the present crisis of the country, will be found apparent.

BRIDAL AND BURIAL.—A telegram, received in this city yesterday morning, conveyed the melancholy news of the death, on the preceding night, at Augusta, Ga., of Mrs. THOMAS P. BRANCH, of that city.

Those of our readers who enjoyed the pleasure of meeting this beautiful and accomplished woman, during the recent holidays, when, as a bride, she received the congratulations of her husband, friends and the friends of his family—the well known bankers of Richmond—will share the regret with which we learn this startling and unhappy event.—Rich. Examiner.

The democratic candidate for Mayor in Reading, Pa., was elected on the 8th inst. by a majority of three hundred and twenty-six votes.

OBJECTION 1.

I'M TOO POOR; I CAN'T AFFORD IT.

ANSWER.

If you are too poor to save less than half a dollar per week, at from 30 to 35 years of age, or proportionately at other ages, and find it so difficult to do so—should you be taken away by death, how bitterly poverty will strike home to your widow and children, or those dependent on you! Is it not worth a struggle to avoid this, and give them at least $1,000 by paying so small a sum? It costs just $2,00 per month to insure $1,000 at the age of 32 years.

OBJECTION 2.

I've talked to several of my friends, and they all advise me to have nothing to do with it.

ANSWER.

Will your friends undertake to provide for those you leave behind, in case you do not live long enough to save money? Ask them, and be guided by their answer.

OBJECTION 3.

I can't make up my mind; call again.

ANSWER.

Your other objections have been answered. I appeal to your own common sense to answer this for yourself, aided by

The Fall Session of this Institution closed 23rd. day of December. The Spring Session opened the 1st. Wednesday in January, and will continue 20 weeks.

The success of this school has been without a parallel. A new building has just been completed, by which a large additional number can be accommodated. We are determined to make our pupils as comfortable as they can be made anywhere, and to afford them all the advantage for a thorough and extensive education, that can be found at any First class Female College, North or South.

The location is a most delightful one. The Mineral Water is too well known to the whole country to need a remark. Even invalid young ladies may secure a thorough education, and at the same time the restoration of their health. Reference is made to every intelligent Physician in the State, as well as to the hundreds who have found relief here.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. In the singleness of dress parents can save 25 per cent. of the entire expense incurred by sending to Boarding Schools located in cities or villages. This Institution is certainly one of the cheapest and most easy of access in the Southern States. Besides, it offers the most superior advantages in every respect.

A PROPOSITION.
IN WHICH YOU ARE INTERESTED.

I PROPOSE for the protection of the citizens of Raleigh and surrounding country, against the imposition of those so-called Cost Stores, to furnish each and every person, the New York Cost of any goods they may want to buy; by this means they can tell whether they are buying goods at Cost or paying a profit on them.

Call before going to any of those Cost Stores so-called, and let me give you a memorandum of Cost prices.

Most of my large stock I will sell at cost but I have goods that I will not sell in that way, and neither will those merchants who make such a flourish about selling at Cost.

No merchant in this place has purchased his Goods any cheaper than I bought mine. Any assertion to the contrary is false; and I will guarantee to sell Goods as low as any Cost House. All I ask is an opportunity to prove the truthfulness of this assertion.

AN INVALUABLE DISCOVERY,
BY WHICH
Water can be Turned into Money.

Truly has it been said, "That the riches of this world, lie buried in the bowels of the earth." The precious metals that are daily taken from thence, readily procure all the luxuries and comforts,—save, the great boon to the sick, Health—without which, life is a burden, and the millions of the Rothchilds' would fail to secure.

To females suffering from Leucorrhœa, (or Whites, as it is commonly called,) I, as a Physician of many years experience, would say, that you need not longer endure a miserable life of pains, aches and general debility, or weakness, the consequence of this deplorable disease.

All Physicians, of modern teaching, will admit the great difficulties in arresting this destroyer of health, for various reasons unnecessary to mention. Patients suffering therefrom will as readily agree, that medicines, however carefully prepared and used fail, in most instances, to afford relief; and in many, from long continuance, produce debility, thereby increasing the malady they were expected to relieve.

Deeming it a great privilege to be a public benefactor, and add to the comforts of the afflicted, by placing before them means of relief, I here give the history of a few cases of great interest that have fallen under my professional care.

Mrs. ———, a lady of the highest standing in the city of Charlotte, N. C., had been an incessant sufferer from Leucorrhœa for three years. Her cheeks were blanched, her skin always cold and almost transparent—in fact she seemed not to have a red corpuscle in her body. So weak was she, that it was with great difficulty she could ascend a flight of stairs, without feeling faint and exhausted. Palpitation of the heart, head-ache, and a dizziness in the head, besides excruciating pains in the back, together with a bearing-down sensation in the region of the womb, were constant and alarming. Notwithstanding they were but symptoms of extreme debility, induced or kept up by the never ceasing drain from her system. In this condition, every means at my command was used for her relief. Remedy after remedy was tried. Every means recommended by our modern authors proved worthless in her case. Hearing of the case of a servant, whom I had formerly treated, (belonging to Mr. Cross,) having been very much benefitted by this mineral water, I resolved, (without further inquiry,) as the last resort, to recommend to her its use. Anxious to be restored once more to health, she readily acceded to my proposition, and visited this well daily. Soon improvement was visible, and in the short space of three months her health was entirely restored. A living monument to the great curative virtues of this water.

The next case of great interest is that of the servant woman already spoken of. Seven years previous to the discovery of this well, Mr. Cross engaged my services in the care of this woman. I made most careful examination and searched out all of the particulars of her history. She had suffered for 18 years with Leucorrhœa, and being sorely afflicted therefrom, it was universally known in our community, that she was the martyr of the town. I found her with all of the distressing symptoms attending this malady, and could only afford her temporary relief. Time passed on, and still her afflictions did not abate. She abandoned all hope of recovery, and resolved to take no medicines, but to resign herself to the fate which seemed to await her. Her master just then having discovered this well, advised that she should drink freely of the water, as it might be of some benefit to her. Like a drowning man catching at straw, she tried it, and improvement was soon perceptible. Perseverance was crowned with success, and this day she is a strong and healthy woman, and can be seen at the residence of her former master, and will take great pleasure in relating, in detail, to any visitors, the history of her case.

Many other cases known to us, of equal interest, have been cured, and others are being daily benefitted.

If is to be regretted that the pecuniary embarrassments incident to the late war precludes the idea of Mr. Cross' fitting up this valuable property, as a resort for invalids. Under these circumstances, the owner (Mr. George Cross, of Charlotte, N. C.) is willing to dispose of his property at the very reasonable price of $10,000 in U. S. currency, and will communicate with any one either by letter or personally.

The plantation of 100 acres of fine and productive land is situated within one and a half miles of the city of Charlotte, N. C., immediately on the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad. A fine residence, with modern improvement and conveniences, together with all necessary buildings attached, have just been completed, and to capitalists seeking investments no finer inducements could be offered.

The Situation.

The action and temper of the Congress, backed, as it appears to be, by the dominant party at the North, and the really abject and unpromising condition of the South, render the situation exceedingly gloomy and unpropitious.

The fixed and unalterable purpose of the Republican party, to hold on to the control of the government at all hazards, and to maintain that position, whatever may be the consequences, has been apparent for some time to all attentive observers. Many of them are no doubt conscientious in the belief that the safety of the Republic and the interests of the North especially, depend upon their supremacy. That all are thus sincere cannot for a moment be claimed, since it is not in human nature, that a party so large, so strong and so bent upon maintaining its position, should be clear of party trickery and demagogism.

The entire policy then of the Republican party has been, and will be, governed by this leading principle—success. Bating a few of the most violent in temper, (and in this remark we do not include Southern radicals, for them charity can find no excuse for their course,) the great body of the intelligent portion of the Republican party are not impelled to their vicient course, are not prompted so much by vindictiveness and cruelty to the Southern people, as by the great principle of party success. If they could be convinced, that by what they term mild measures, the success of their party organization could be as certainly secured, in a judgment of charity, they would as readily accept them as severer measures. Hence the tenacity with which moderate Republicans hold to the Howard amendment, as the least offensive measure which could effect their great purpose.

The action, however, of the entire party, has been based upon what we conceive to be two errors, which, however they may view them, it carried out, can but be ruinous to the South.—The first impediment which they conceive lies in their way of success, is the President's plan of reconstruction and the President himself.—Secondly, that to make it sure, the so called "rebels" of the South must be disfranchised, because beyond the reach of Radical influence, and the so called loyalists of the South and the negroes must be enfranchised, because more likely to serve their purpose. Questions of right, or of humanity or magnanimity, cannot be considered as at all bearing upon the action of the party. Party has no soul, no responsibility, but if private conscience is touched, it is readily silenced by the quick suggestion "rebels" have no rights, nor are they entitled to humanity.

Now, we judge the party will most certainly remove all of these difficulties out of their way, if possible, to secure their ends, unless both of these impediments can be so neutralized as to secure their object easier. The impeachment of the President, they regard as the most hazardous, yet if he cannot be neutralized and rendered harmless, he will be removed out of the way. The Howard amendment at one time seemed to be the easiest, mildest way of affecting their object. The adoption of that scheme by the States would have made their scheme easy, and would have subjected them less to the charge of usurpation and unconstitutional action. Its failure, for a time nonplused them, and has brought the party to the alternative of walking deliberately over the Constitution, in order to effect the purpose at once of disfranchising the Southern whites and enfranchising the negroes. Nothing short of universal suffrage, will satisfy the ultras—less than this would satisfy many of the conservative portion of the party, provided it will not endanger the success of the party.

The attempt therefore, will not be made to impeach the President at once. The Elliot and Stevens bills go the whole length of breaking up the President's entire policy, but are looking mainly no doubt to the great design of disfranching the true men, the anti radicals of the South, and enfranchising the blacks, as the only hope of securing the Southern States to the support of the Radical party. If the President should interfere either by veto or by an appeal to the Supreme Court or by force, to thwart their purpose, they will no longer hesitate to remove him from office. The revolution will then be complete and the South enslaved, how long, God only knows.

It is to be regretted that both of these bills are based upon statements which nine-tenths of the Southern people insist, are unfounded, and at a time, and under circumstances, which forbid such a refutation officially, as the world would respect. It is monstrous, that a whole people are to be charged, committed, tried and condemned, without a hearing and without Judge or jury.

Under such circumstances, is it worth while to appeal to the Congress or to the dominant party for a hearing? Is it prudent or honorable to ask a moment's consideration to any appeal which the Southern people or States might make? Will Congress, at this juncture, listen to anything the Southern States might say?—We confess, we have never had so difficult a question to determine. After having sacrificed almost everything at the bidding of the Government—after having complied with all the conditions of surrender made known to us, to give proof as strong as was possible, of our future fidelity to the Union and the Government, can we now go further? Ought we to go further, if we could? Suppose we were willing to accept the new plan of adjustment, which has been unofficially presented to the South, as the work of Southern men, what security have we—what security did we have in the case of the Howard amendment, that that would form even a basis of settlement?

Many believe that they could adopt the new plan as a finality, but few know how to approach it, and least of all how to adopt it, in the absence of such an assurance. And why? We have been forced already to do what ought to have been done solely on the responsibility of the government, and yet it has done no good. Pledges yet remain uncancelled. If we had taken the Howard amendment, the evidence is palpable, we would have been in the same condition, unless we had granted universal negro suffrage. Disfranchisement and universal negro suffrage are what the dominant party are determined upon as a sure means of success. Is there any evidence that they will be satisfied with less? Some would we have no doubt; but with the strong party epidemic setting in that direction, will anything less satisfy the restless, grasping spirit of the dominant party? We fear not. For this reason, we have no counsel to give our people, but to prepare their minds and hearts to yield as best they may, to the gathering storm until its fury is past.

Thomas McGehee, Esq., of Person.

We regret to learn from the Danville Times, the recent death of this estimable citizen. Mr. McGehee was a gentleman of the old school, hospitable, a good neighbor, marked for his sincerity and integrity, and enjoyed largely the confidence and esteem of his neighbors. For many years he had been a skillful farmer and in his ripe old age, enjoyed the results of his industry and good management. His cool, conservative, ripe judgment made him an excellent counsellor, and the confidence reposed in him, made his opinions much sought after. He had been for a number of years a member of the Presbyterian church and died calmly at his residence in Person county, at the advanced age of nearly 90 years.

REMARKS OF MR. KELSEY,

OF MADISON,

In the House, on the motion to indefinitely postpone the Penitentiary Bill.

SIR.—I would be justified in voting for a penitentiary bill by the present sentiments of my constituents, but fearing that they are not fully informed on the subject, having no statistics before them, as we have not either, on the subject, I oppose the indefinite postponement of the bill, and shall vote for a reference to the people again for a re-examination of the question.

I think my constituents are of opinion that the system would result in a source of revenue, as I also have thought. In this I fear we have been mistaken. There is contradictory information on this point, even in States where the convicts are nearly all mechanics, ready taught and put to useful employment as recieved.

I fear, also, we have not sufficiently estimated the cost of erection and other expenses, and our present incapacity to meet them. It is true Sir, that the system is best suited to the graduation of punishment to crime, and meets the demand of present civilization in the abrogation of barbarous personal infliction, and can be defended on the changed relations of our social life, and various other considerations, more or less important, and well worth the consideration of the people, if presented to them.

I will therefore, Sir, vote against the postponement, and vote for its reference again to the people, believing that my constituents will not object to a reconsideration.

REMARKS OF MR. SPEED,

OF PASQUOTANK.

IN THE SENATE ON THURSDAY, 14TH INST., ON THE BILL TO ISSUE TREASURY NOTES TO PAY THE INTEREST ON THE STATE BONDS.

Mr. Speaker:—I do not feel at liberty, if so disposed, to trouble the Senate with any lengthened disquisition upon financial matters, or the principles which govern trade, credit and kindred subjects. I gave my reasons on yesterday why I should not vote for the bill introduced by the venerable Senator from Orange. I differ with the gentleman with great deference. He is cool, collected, well informed and deeply impressed with the difficulties of the situation, and fortifies his bill with the approbation of some of the best informed, sagacious and patriotic men in the State,—men in whom the public have confidence; and I concur with the public in its high appreciation of them. Nevertheless, Sir, I am here to act upon the convictions to which my own mind is irresistibly driven by facts and circumstances.

The gentleman says, I claim to be a friend of relief for the people. The Senate and public must judge of that matter from my acts. I know the people clamor for relief, and I desire to afford it; but Sir, when they cry for bread, I do not wish to cast them a stone, and I believe that is what they will get in this bill. I stated on yesterday, that, in my opinion, these notes, if issued, would not answer the purpose intended, and gave my reasons. I understand it to be a well settled principle, that a depreciated currency will drive a better one from circulation. In the war, bank notes drove specie from circulation; State Treasury notes, bank notes and Confederate money excluded all other species of paper. Now, Sir, I am well satisfied that these notes will start at a depreciation. They will be considered worth less than Federal currency or bank notes, and will drive them from circulation. We now, according to the best information I can get, have only about one and a half millions of currency in this State, and that at a depreciation of —— per cent in gold. But, Sir, the Senator insists that I said that S. C. has issued bills receivable, and that they passed at only 20 per cent, and as greenbacks are 25 per cent, they are better than them. Now what I did say was, that the Secretary of State of South Carolina said they were at 15 per cent discount on greenbacks; and I will inform the Senator that they are now 16 per cent below Federal currency; that the Legislature authorized the issue of five hundred thousand dollars, but the depreciation was so rapid that the officers thought it best to discontinue the issue,—and now, when there has been one hundred and eleven thousand dollars withdrawn from circulation, there being now only one hundred and eighty-nine thousand dollars in circulation, is it reasonable to suppose that North Carolina can sustain an issue of one and a half millions? The Senator says, Maryland found herself in debt fifteen millions; that her Railroad Companies failed to pay the interest, and that she was responsible for the interest upon fifteen millions, and had made no provision to meet it, and that there, as here, the spectre of Repudiation stalked abroad in the land; and then, in this condition, she issued Treasury notes to meet it, and thereby restored her credit.

My understanding of the action of Maryland is different. She issued State scrip for her interest, made the scrip receivable in payment of an enormous tax levied to meet the scrip, and at the same time, levied a gold tax to meet the ordinary expenses of the government. This, too, Mr. Speaker, was in times of piping peace, when the State of Maryland was prosperous in her agricultural, commercial, mechanical and manufacturing interests. Sir, when the gentlemen talks about general repudiation, I tell him the cause lies in the action of the government. Do not complain that the people do not desire any more of your promises to pay, when you remember that the old barrels, stockings, chest-tills of their houses hold your promises to pay, which they received in exchange for their products, and which are worthless.—Circumstances have rendered the people unable to pay. The action of the government, not their own conduct or the promptings of their own will. When a bill is brought forward to meet the State's liabilities, when the people have the capacity the Senator will find me as ready as he, and my people as ready as his, to toil and strive to sustain the good name of their common mother.

But the Senator says, the bond holders are willing to take these notes in payment of their interests. I do not doubt it. The Senator says, they will lend the money to their neighbors with which to pay their taxes. I do not doubt it. They will greatly prefer to have their claims secured by personal security based upon real estate collaterals, then to let it stand as it is, but will these bondholders ever have any use for these notes afterwards? No sir. When these notes are depreciated and the notes mature, you will then find that specie or some other currency will be greatly preferred to these Treasury notes.

Is there any sane man who supposes the foreign holders of these coupons, past due will attempt to circulate these notes, if they take them for their interest. I suppose not. They will take them and at once exchange them for national currency, so that in a short time we will have no more greenbacks in the State, than there is gold now. But the difficulty is still greater to tell how the people are to get this currency. I mean the masses. What have they to get it with? The poor were compelled to sell their cotton, to obtain clothes and supplies, the crop of corn was scarcely anything. Tar, pitch and turpentine are but little gathered, and I apprehend the tobacco also, has fallen into the hands of capitalists, and as suggested by the Senator from Halifax, the fish are scarce. How then are the people to get it, only from the bond holders, who took it for interest, who live in the State, and mortgage their farms to secure the payment in gold, or its equivalent.—The Senator, was pleased to say that I boasted that I, understood these matters and asked why I did not come foward, with some better plan. Here the Senator is at fault again. I distinctly said, that my information in regard to money, Banks and Currency was limited. That I had read Smith's Wealth of Nations, Says Political Economy, Tucker on Money and Banks and some others, and that from all that I had gathered, I had come to the conclusion that neither, States or individuals could restore lost credit by the reckless issue of their own bonds, or pay their debts, except by taxes or labor. That I had prepared a plan, by which I thought the interest could be paid in nine years, but the basis was taxation; but I had concluded not to bring it forward.

I state it as my opinion that no people upon earth can stand the depletion of the annual interest of fifteen millions of dollars, when that interest is payable in a distant country, the State has one million inhabitants only.

Mr. Speaker, when Sir Robert Peel came to the Premiership of England, he found under the funding policy, and the payment of interest in foreign countries, that the securities could be purchased anywhere in Europe at from 40 to 45 per cent. on the dollar. The Empire was unable to pay, he frankly said so. He at once reduced the interest from 4, 5 and 6 to 3 per cent., and required all holders of English bonds and consols to bring them in, and get new bonds with the interest payable at home. Instead of issuing large bonds, which could only fall into the hands of large capitalists, he issued small ones, that could fall into the hands of the masses. He interested all the people in the sustentation of the public credit. He made the consols receivable in taxes and payable in London. The State credit rose, and now, sir, while the debt is greater, much greater than it was then, there is no security held in higher estimation in the markets of the world, and it is said to be the foundation of the throne and the stability of the Government. The Senator is pleased to fortify the bill with names. In my opinion he is as much mistaken in the opinions of some of the parties he quotes, as he is incorrect in his quotation of my language and opinions. He avers the Chief Executive of the State favors this bill, and is willing to try it for two years. I will inform the Senator that he has considered this bill, and upon mature reflection, has changed his opinion.

The Senator says, I estimated the taxable property of the State at one hundred million, and cited the Treasurer's report to show that I made quite a mistake, as the Treasurer, whose business it is to look into these matters, estimated it at three hundred millions. The Treasurer's estimate is based upon values before the war, and so confident is that officer, and so confident is this Senate, that no reasonable men can be found to place any such value upon property now, as the Treasurer's estimate is based upon, that they refuse to re-value, preferring a small tax upon fictitious values, to a large one upon real values. I must still insist that my estimate is quite as near correct as the Treasurer's, and that I am sustained by the Treasurer and the action of this body, with the co-operation of the Senator from Orange.

REMARKS OF MR. KELSEY,

OF MADISON,

In the House, on the Bill to give Buncombe Superior Court exclusive jurisdiction of the Western Turnpike road.

I did not expect this bill would be reached this morning or pressed, if reached. Consequently I have not been thinking as much about it, as I otherwise would. I regret being bound, by a sense of duty, to the good people of Madison, to oppose this bill, and I shall give my grounds of opposition in a few words. The bill proposes to divert the jurisdiction of the courts of Madison and Henderson, (or at least that is the effect of the bill,) and places it in the Superior Court of Buncombe, as far as relates to a certain class of offences.

To apply these remarks more particularly, if the Buncombe Turnpike Company should neglect to keep their road in good order, in either of the Counties before mentioned; in that case, and in all cases of neglect, instead of being indicted in the county where the offence was committed, and the witnesses live, they are to be indicted in the county where the offender lives. It must be obvious to the House, therefore, that this bill should not be passed. It is giving privilege to an offender, to the prejudice of the witnesses of his delinquency.

It forces the attendance of witnesses out of their own county at considerably increased expense, and a longer absence from their home duties. I need not dwell on this subject as I do not think the House will entertain the bill.

SCHOOLS IN NORTH AND SOUTH CAROLINA,

FOR THE

Orphans of Confederate Soldiers.

REFERENCES:

"COLUMBIA, Oct. 19, 1866.

MISS M. A. BUIE, SO FAVORABLY KNOWN during the war as the "Soldier's Friend," is engaged in the attempt to found a School for the orphan children of Southern Soldiers. She proposes that contributions for this purpose should be placed in the hands of some gentlemen of this State, to be appointed by the Governor, and that the School shall be located in some desirable portion of the South. I commend this laudable undertaking to all charitable persons, and I wish that the amplest success may reward the patriotic efforts of Miss Buie.
WADE HAMPTON."

"I concur with Gen. Hampton in commending the benevolent enterprise of Miss Buie to the favor and patronage of the generous, liberal and philanthropic. Her life thus far has been devoted to acts of kindness and charity, and she merits success in her undertaking.
J. L. ORR, Governor."

"STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, COLUMBIA, October 26, 1866.

MISS BUIE:—I approve of your suggestion to appoint Mr. D. L. McKay, of Charleston, as Treasurer, to receive the funds and hold them for the Female School you are interesting yourself to establish for the education of orphan girls. He is a gentleman of high character, gr. at moral worth, and enjoys the confidence of the public.
Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
J. L. ORR."

Mr. McKay accepts the office. All funds sent to South Carolina must be sent to him.
MARY ANN BUIE.

"THE PEOPLE'S NATIONAL BANK,

Yours truly,
D. L. McKAY,
President People's National Bank."

Miss Buie begs the co-operation of all persons to aid her in this enterprise to educate and make good and useful thousands. All donations must be paid to the Treasurers appointed by the two Governors.—Gov. Worth says:

"You may rely on my co-operation. You ask me to appoint some suitable persons as Treasurers. I suggest Geo. W. Mordecai, of Raleigh; Wm. A. Wright of Wilmington; Philip A. Wiley, of Fayetteville; John D. Whitford, Newberne; Jesse H Lindsay, Greensboro'; D. A. Davis, Salisbury; I. G. Lash, Salem; R. F. Swinston, Statesville; L. W. Dewry, Charlotte; Gen. Robert Vance, Asheville. If other names are desired in other localities, I will designate them. May you be successful in this, the noblest charity in the use of the benevolence to which you have devoted your life.
Yours very respectfully and truly,
JONATHAN WORTH,
Feb 9-157-tf Governor of North Carolina.

THE SENTINEL.

Friday Evening, Feb. 15, 1867.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

LIGHT HOUSE NON EXPLOSIVE OIL.—We ask the attention of our readers to the Card of the Agent, of the Manufacturers of this Oil. By the efforts of Mr. Hester, this oil has been considerable used here. It makes a splendid light and the lamps and burners are very superior.—Mr. Orrell the general agent at 120 Maiden Lane is prepared to supply any demand.

Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern, offer a large lot of goods for Coach Makers and Saddlers. See advertisements.

See J. Brown's notice of new Buggy Springs and Axles, at reduced prices.

City, State or General items are exceedingly scarce, except what has become too common, the robbery of a smoke house &c., or the probable killing of some one, known to but few.

MESSRS. GARRETT, YOUNG, SCOTT & Co.—The Card of this large and responsible House will be found in another column. This is, perhaps, one of the largest, if not the largest, establishment in the country. Several of these gentlemen, the Messrs. Garrett, Mr. Shaffer and Mr. Scott are well known in this State, as gentlemen of reliability and fine business fact. Spencer, Scott & Co., of Newark, have for years had the highest character as manufacturers.

RELIEF FOR THE NEEDY.—His Excellency, Gov. Worth, was informed by letter to-day, by Edward Bright, Esq., Corresponding Secretary of the Southern Relief Commission of New York, that the Commission gave orders on the 11th inst., for the purchase of 3000 bushels of corn of the best white or mixed, to be shipped from New York to Wilmington, to the care of O. G. Parsley & Co. At the desire of the Commission, it will be distributed under the direction of Col. Bomford, the gentlemanly District Commander, in this city, and Gov. Worth, among those who are in want of food, "without respect to race or opinion."

We can assure the Commission that its request will be strictly complied with, and we tender it in behalf of the needy, their warmest thanks. While these acts of charity and good feeling are being displayed, which cause joy to hundreds, if the Southern people could see the same spirit evinced by the Congress in affording relief from our political needs and re-assuring us that its aims are peace and good will, it would send a thrill of joy to the hearts of millions.

HOPE REVIVES.—It is not good to be too sanguine, because it adds to the bitterness of disappointment if our anticipations are not realized; but we cannot forbear expressing our gratification at the developments in the House of Representatives during the last few days. The cheering indications of a satisfactory settlement of our existing political difficulties are not more apparent in the action of the House than in its tone and temper shown during the debate. Thus it is manifest that while there is no disposition on the part of the Republican members, as a body, to recede from their position of demanding from the South such guarantees as will secure to the nation the full benefit of victories hardly won; yet a great number of them are seriously anxious to effect a restoration of the Union, if it can be brought about with safety, and without any sacrifice of honor or principle. Their perseverance in the course indicated in Saturday's debate will, we trust, result in the adoption of some plan, just in itself, satisfactory to the great majority of the people, and acceptable to the Executive. That such a plan will meet the approval of extremeists in either section is not to be expected, but the great mass of the people will hail it as a means of escape from the perils which threaten to culminate in a change of our whole system of government, with what result no one can foresee. It is time for sturdy, intelligent patriotism, firm and wise in action, and not for party manœuvres and political trickery, which, contemptible at any time, are criminal at a period when issues of such magnitude are impending.—Wash. Star.

CAUGHT IN HIS OWN TRAP.—Once two ministers of the Gospel were conversing together on extempoaneous preaching:

"Well," said the old divine, waxing warm, "you are ruining yourself by writing your sermons and reading them off. Your congregation cannot become interested in your preaching, and if you are called upon to preach unexpectedly, unless you could get hold of an old sermon, you would be completely confused."

The young divine used all his eloquence, but in vain, to convince the old gentleman that the written sermon expressed his own thoughts and feelings, and if called upon he could preach extemporaneously.

"As we are of the same faith," said the young minister, "suppose you try me next Sabbath morning. On ascending the pulpit you can hand me a text from any part of the Bible, and I will convince you that I can preach without having looked at the text before I stand up. Likewise, I must be allowed the same privilege with you, and see who will make the best of it."

The idea seemed to delight the old gentleman, and it was immediately agreed upon.

The following Sabbath, on mounting the pulpit, his senior brother handed him a slip of paper, on which was written, "And the ass opened his mouth and spake;" from which he preached a glorious sermon, chaining the attention of his delighted hearers, and charming his old friend with his eloquence.

In the afternoon, the young brother, who was sitting below the pulpit, handed his slip. After rising and opening the Bible, the old man looked sadly around—"Am I not thine ass?" Pausing a few minutes, he ran his fingers through his hair, straightened his collar, blew his nose like the last trumpet, and read aloud, "Am I not thine ass?" Another pause, in which a deadly silence reigned. After reading the third time, "Am I not thine ass?" he looked over the pulpit at his friend, and in a doleful voice said, "I think I am, brother."

GEORGE BANCROFT, historian, has been nominated to the Senate of the United States to be Collector of the port of Boston.

It is reported that the Memphis Appeal newspaper has been purchased by John Hogan, of St. Louis, and others. It will be edited by Gen. Albert Pike.

Corn is quoted in Richmond at 85a90 cts. per bushel. A sale of 4,200 bushels prime white new corn was made on Monday for shipment South, at $1.03.

Our Friday Morning Dispatches.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.

In the Senate, a bill was introduced authorizing the Postmaster General to contract for a monthly mail between San Francisco and Honolulu, no bid to exceed a hundred thousand dollars.

A motion to take up the Louisiana bill failed 17 to 25.

The League Island bill was passed by 27 to 17 and goes to the President.

A committee of conference was appointed on the tenure of office bill.

The Louisiana bill was read the second time.

Mr. Turnbull spoke of several amendments.

Mr. Wade said if amended too far it would lose it. He gave notice that he would give the Senate no rest when the bill came up till it was passed.

Mr. Sumner was in favor of both bills, the Stevens and Louisiana. He had amendments to offer. One abolishing all decrees of courts since the secession ordinance.

Mr. Fessenden favored both bills and Blaine's amendments, which admits States on the adoption of the Constitutional amendment and impartial suffrage.

Mr. Wade consented to postpone, and the amendments were ordered to be printed.

Stevens' bill came up, was read the second time and ordered to be printed.

The bill for retiring compound interest notes was passed and goes to the House.

The House refused to concur in the Senate amendment to the tenure of office bill, including Cabinet officers.

The bill to pay the loyal States' war debt provides for the issue of one hundred and fifteen millions in five per cent bonds.

Mr. Delano said that it was not the time for such action, when the credit of the government is worse than that of any State in the Union. Referred.

Gov. Orr on the Situation.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 14.

At the anniversary banquet of the Chamber of Commerce, Gov. Orr said that our political relations are very grave. He had recently been in position to consult the controllers of the government, in all frankness. It was difficult to tell the future political situation. Several Southern gentlemen hoped to secure the support of the Conservative Radicals. Hence the scheme of adjustment that had been suggested. His judgment is that if North Carolina and Arkansas adopt the programme, and others adopt it, or show a disposition to do so, it will produce the best results, and save the South from many proposed radical measures.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.

There was a meeting last night of conservative Republicans, friends of the President and the prominent Southerners in the city, at Willard's. It was merely colloquial. Nothing was determined on, though there was a free exchange of opinion, which seemed to dispel the gloom somewhat. Other meetings will follow.

The anxiety regarding the immediate passage by the Senate of either bill, is abating, though the excitement and apprehension is still great.

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.

Mr. Bingham voted for Steven's bill, notwithstanding his opposition to it.

The movement in favor of Blaine's amendment making the adoption of the Constitutional amendment, with universal suffrage, appended as a finality, gains ground. Several Republican Senators will help the Democrats fight the bill to a pocket-veto, unless an amendment is added which will take it back to the House. There is really some hope that the bills will go over. As the crisis approaches Senators are becoming serious over the responsibility of fathering the bills.

Southern Loyalists.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.

Ask them if they will sell Rio Coffee at 23½ c. per lb., a good article, not dead grains, NOT ROCKS, BUT COFFEE.

If they will sell them at the above prices they are cheap, if they will not, leave immediately.

A FEW WORDS TO MY FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS.

I advertised in the early part of the season that I would sell goods as cheap, as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, Cost Houses not excepted—as cheap as he who had paid for his goods, or ever intended to pay for them. And I here take the privilege to say, that I think my customers will bear me out when I say, I have done so in almost every instance.

I told the people to "come to Creech's," to buy their goods—they have come, and they are still coming—and I think they will pardon me when I say they have shown their good judgment.

I now tell them to "come to Creech's" to buy their goods.

I don't advertise my goods at New York Cost.—I intend to represent my goods to you in a fair and equitable way, and sell them fully as cheap as any so-called Cost House. And I here say to the so-called cost gentlemen, if they paid what they charge their customers for goods, I advise them to go back to the License man and surrender their license. Go back to your Land-lords and ask them to take back your houses,—and proclaim to the world that you have missed your calling, and are not fit for merchants.

I compromised my debts that I owed North before the war, by paying them at one hundred cents in the dollar.

Let them start their opposition—let them all talk. But "come to Creech's," to buy your goods. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, ready and willing at all times to serve you right.

A. CREECH.

PERUVIAN GUANO SUBSTITUTE!

BAUGH'S

RAW BONE SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

Manufactured under the formula originated in 1834 and patented by

BAUGH & SONS,

SOLE PROPRIETORS, AT THE

Delaware River Chemical Works,

PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A.

This old established MANURE is manufactured from Bones that have not been burned or steamed, and it contains all their original organic matter. It is active in its operation, and is a fertilizer of great durability. It does not exhaust the soil like Peruvian Guano, but on the contrary permanently improves it.

Previous to 1861 it was introduced into the Southern States to considerable extent, and again in 1865, where it has been used with remarkable success upon Cotton, Corn, Tobacco, and all Crops.

A trial will convince any planter of its merits.—Pamphlets containing well-known Southern evidence furnished upon application to New York or Philadelphia offices.

Sold by Dealers in all the principal cities and towns throughout the United States and British Provinces.

FERTILIZERS FOR SPRING CROPS.

WE beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 225 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent Chemists in the country:

Results of Analyses Made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by Wm. L. Bradley.

100 PARTS CONSIST OF
Moisture	5.80
Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humus	38.50
Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron	36.80
(Soluble Phosphates of do. 16 6-10.)
Sulphate of Lime	16.50
Salts	20
Insoluble	2.60
	99.90

The animal matter afforded 4 2-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and, as will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is soluble.

After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality full equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

We refer to the following gentlemen who tested its merits last season:

THIS well known and popular Institution is once more in successful operation, and is prepared for the reception of Cadets at any time.—It is under the direction of

GEN. R. E. COLSTON,

a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a

Professor of the Virginia
MILITARY INSTITUTE,

and a colleague of

STONEWALL JACKSON.

The course of the Institution is that of the Virginia Military Institute, and is such as to make the Academy a great

POLYTECHNIC SCHOOL.

A school of theoretical and applied science, in which Languages and Literature also receive a due share of attention. The discipline and instructions are on a Complete Military Basis.

The Faculty is for the present organized as follows:

Superintendent and Professor of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy, and Instructor of Infantry and Cavalry tactics, GEN. R. E. COLSTON, late Professor of French, and of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy at the Virginia Military Institute, and late Brig. General C. S. A.

Professor of Natural and Experimental Philosophy, Ordnance, Gunnery and instructor of Artillery tactics, Major D. TRUEHEART, Graduate of the Virginia Military Institute in 1850—afterwards Assistant Professor of the Va. Military Institute—attached to the United States Coast Survay—late Major and Chief of Artillery in the C. S. Army.

Professor of Mathematics, Civil and Military Engineering, Architecture, Topographical and Industrial Drawing, and Assistant Instructor of Infantry tactics, Maj. W. A. OBENCHAIN, "first distinguished Graduate," of his Class in the Virginia Military Institute, and for efficient and meritorious services during the war, promoted Captain of Engineers in the late C. S. Army.

Professor of Chemistry, Agricultural Chemistry, Geology and Mineralogy, Col. LEWELLYN HOXTON, "Distinguished graduate" of West Point Military Academy, and late Chief of Artillery to Hardee's Corps.

New appointments will be made, and the Chairs now filled will be subdivided as soon as the number of Cadets makes it desirable.

Applicants for Professorships must be gentlemen of Scientific and Military education, who have served in the field.

Candidates for admission as Cadets are advised to come without delay. Until the 1st. of February next, all those Cadets present at the Academy, will be pushed forward in their studies irrespective of classes, so as to enable them, at that time, to enter the most advanced classes for which they may be found qualified.

By coming at once they may gain an entire year in the term of their education.

LIFE INSURANCE.

MANY insure their lives because they see the folly of neglecting to do so. Many who do not insure argue that it is folly to insure. Which is right? If those who do not insure can cite instances of the harm done by a policy of life Insurance, if they can point out men who have lost $5,000 to $100,000 by Life Insurance, then upon proof of same, we must believe them. Hundreds of instances can readily be shown where parties have been benefitted to this extent.—In North Carolina there are some Widows and Children ready to testify to the good resulting from a life Insurance on their only earthly dependence.

The "Ætna Life Co., in loosing $23.000 the past year has relieved want—and now with over $4.000.000 of assets—offers sure protection to all those who will avail themselves of her liberal terms, by calling on 1867. "THE WORLD" 1867.

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC IS INVITED to the claims of "THE WORLD" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merit consists in its character as An enterprising and Trustworthy Newspaper.

The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions, than even any of the eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy, and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts the rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance.
